9. [] In response to the request of Representative Philip J. Philbin of last Friday that I stop by one day when it was convenient, I had a rather long discussion with Mr. Philbin's administrative assistant, Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher apologized that the Congressman had returned home on Thursday since the House would not be in session on Friday. He indicated the Congressman was appreciative of the information and material furnished him last week and he would be pleased if I could stop in Monday at my convenience and chat with him further on the subject of applications for employment by constituents. It was agreed that possibly Tuesday or Wednesday of next week would be the best time to catch the Congressman.
